

KC COURIER

The fast read source providing you with all the dirt to keep you informed, entertained, and promote workplace safety.

OUR TOP STORY

Fort Belvoir Project Completed

Teamwork

Tech Tip from Technology Management

Mechanic's Memo

Employee Highlights

Fort Belvoir Project Completed

The 2.5 million dollar hospital out-fall stream restoration job located in Fort Belvoir, VA is now complete. Photos of work can be submitted to Stacey at hr@kconconstruct.com for the website portfolio.

Teamwork

Dan Galetti, John Duda, and George "JR" Parsons install concrete around 18" CIP at Willow Grove on May 26, 2009.

Tech Tip: Dealing with Digital Photos

Technology Management

New digital cameras are terrific! They take great pictures that you want to save, share, and email to others. The problem is the picture resolution is so high that they are:

- Difficult to Print. They eat up huge amounts of storage space.
- They are too large to post on the Web or

Email to a friend or colleague.

You need to reduce the RESOLUTION of the photos to make them usable in your IT environment. Reducing just the size of the picture does NOT reduce the resolution.

Google Picasa and Microsoft Office Picture Manager are two easy products to use to reduce the resolution of your digital pictures either individually or as a group. Use the edit picture feature to reduce the resolution to the level that is appropriate for your purpose.

Mechanic's Memo

KC would like to remind all company truck drivers that we will not be purchasing lawn mowers. Please remember to keep your trucks clean.

EMPLOYEE HIGHLIGHTS

Dave Machiesky, Todd Weaver, and Bill Sickler take a trip to Washington D.C.

KC Construction continues to keep our friend and co-worker, Garrett Kuhns, and his family in our prayers. You may visit www.caringbridge.org to learn of Garrett's progress. This website is dedicated to his full recovery from injuries suffered in a devastating car crash in Sinking Spring, PA on March 7, 2009. Garrett is shown above installing flange pipe in the blower room at Silver Springs in March.

KC PRIZE PATROL

This month's lucky winner is Robert Machiesky.

Congratulations, Bob, you have won a $50.00 gift certificate of your choice. Please contact Doreen at the KC office to select your prize. Thank you to all who took the time out to complete the newsletter survey.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU
March 2009
SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17 ST PATRICKS DAY	18	19	20 Ray Strazdus Spring	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31
April 2009
SUN	MON	TUES	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
			1	2	3	4 Carl Miller
5 Palm Sunday	6	7	8 Passover	9	10 Chris Landis Good Friday	11
12 Happy Easter!	13	14	15	16	17	18
19	20	21	22 Administrative Professional Day	23	24	25
26	27 Bill Sickler	28 George Parsons John Guy	29 Brian Miller	30

The Cones.

